

Dear Jerry,

A message from 2014 Annual Conference Chair, Audrey Lynberg

You recently received a message about this conference. Now we need your help as registration has been disappointing. While the deadline for reserving a room at the conference hotel at the conference rate has expired, we are pleased to announce that the conference registration date has been extended to November 8.

Find details about registering at www.CGJA.org or in the latest issue of the CGJA Journal, which contains a detailed description of the outstanding program we have assembled..

Please support your organization by registering for the conference. If that is not possible a donation to help us defray costs will be greatly appreciated.

Hope to see you there,

Audrey
