

CGJA News - August 2018

A final reminder about the CGJA 2018 Annual Conference . . .

By Lloyd Bell, CGJA Annual Conference Chair

Our conference schedule is complete, and it promises to be another informative program with time allotted to socialize with colleagues we only see from time to time. You will meet our newly elected directors and officers who will be announced early in the program. You won't want to miss that. You'll also meet the next Angelo Rolando award recipient and hear from the authors of the report recognized with the Excellence in Reporting Award. Did I mention that there will also be two Certificates of Special Recognition presented as well? These awards are not made automatically every year, only when recognition is deserved.

The Annual Conference Committee has also made a change to that portion of the program formerly titled Chapter Officer/Member Meeting. This year, it will be called the Chapter/Member Forum led by Jim McClary from the Host (El Dorado) Association where other chapters will share the techniques being used to significantly improve chapter and court relations, with time set aside for questions and answers. We know this will be a welcome addition to our program and that the information to be shared will help answer what has been a perennial topic at recent conferences.

But first, you must register for the conference. While the deadline for conference registration is September 7, you must secure your hotel reservations by August 31 in order to be guaranteed the CGJA rate. Please take time to do this today. You may also wish to consider coming in a day early or remaining a day later to take advantage of the beautiful fall weather and the wide range of activities at the lake!

We are looking forward to seeing you in South Lake Tahoe October 1-2, 2018!
