

The California Grand Jurors' Association presents the 2021 Best News Media Reporting Award to the *New Times

for the in-depth description and broad distribution of its news coverage of the 2019-20 San Luis Obispo County Grand Jury report, Paso Robles School District: A Cautionary Tale. The report addressed long-term and ongoing financial problems of the Paso Robles Joint Unified School District.

The Excellence in Reporting Award program recognizes individuals and media that have created positive changes in their communities by increasing awareness of the California Grand Jury system.

Presented on this 25th day of October 2021.

Joann Landi, Chair
CGJA Awards Committee

Lou Panetta, President
California Grand Jurors' Association